JUDGE CRANMER

Selected as the Spokesman of the Dewey-Fort Henry Committee.

TEN OR TWELVE WILL LEAVE

This Afternoon for Washington, via The Baltimore & Ohio—Well Attended Meeting of the Committee Was Held Last Evening—Letter From Lieut. Doddridge..

Last evening at the office of T. M. Garvin, the Dewey invitation committee, named the evening before by the Fort Henry tablet committee, met for the purpose of organizing by the selection of a spokesman, and arranging minor details in connection with the trip of the committee to Washington today. Of the committee there were present Messrs. G. L. Cranmer, T. M. Garvin, John Frew, John Waterhouse, Robert White, R. M. Baird, A. T. Sweeney, C. H. Taney and R. M. Archer.

The committee organized by selecting as its spokesman, Judge Cranmer. Mayor Sweeney was suggested in this connection, but declined to allow his name to be considered, as it was probable he would be unable to make the trip.

The committee discussed the matter of headquarters during the stay in Washington, and decided to stop at the Riggs house. The committee will assemble at the Baltimore & Ohio station this afternoon at 5:10 o'clock, and will leave on the 5:20 train. Of the committee, the following members stated last night their intention to go: Messrs. C. W. Brockunier, John Frew, G. L. Cranmer, R. M. Archer, R. M. Baird, Alex. Updegraff, T. M. Garvin, John Waterhouse, H. P. McGregor, M. A. Chew and H. C. Ogden. Mayor Sweeney desires to go, but business engagements may interfere at the last moment.

The Dewey testimonial was on exhibition at Grubb's, and was viewed by thousands of people, all of whom express surprise that such a magnificent piece of art pottery has been produced in the city of Wheeling. Early this afternoon the jardiniere will be carefully boxed, and will go via express on the train with the committee.

Contributions to the Intelligencer Doddridge sword fund are coming slowly.
To date, $198 has been subscribed, nearly two-fifths of the $500 desired.
The entertainment to be arranged for the benefit of the fund will add a considerable sum, but individual subscriptions will be needed to bring the amount to the $500 mark. Persons desiring to contribute, no matter how small the amount, are requested to leave contributions at the Intelligencer counting rooms, or mail to the Intelligencer Publishing Company.

The Intelligencer Doddridge sword fund benefit entertainment committee will meet to-morrow morning at the home of the chairman, Mrs. George B.
Caldwell, and a full attendance is desired. Plans and programme for the proposed entertainment will be discus-ed in detail.

DODDRIDGE APPRECIATES

The Intelligencer's Project to Present Him a Sword as a Testimonial of the Esteem in Which He is Held at Home.

NAVY YARD,
NOBOLK, Va., Nov. 20, 1899.
The Intelligencer, R. M. Archer, City Editor:
DEAR MR. ARCHER:—Your letter of November 18, 1899, received, and I thank the Intelligencer for the kindly interest it has displayed in me in inaugurating a fund to purchase a sword to be presented in conjunction with the Fort Henry tablet ceremonies on February 22, 1900.
Although unable to state positively at this time whether I can be present on the above mentioned date, it is almost certain that I can come to my native city on Washington's birthday or such other day as Admiral Dewey may select. Respectfully, JOHN S. DODDRIDGE.

As will be seen from the letter printed above, which was received this morning from Lieut. Doddridge, the young naval officer highly appreciates the recognition which his fellow townsmen will extend to him in conjunction with the Fort Henry tablet setting and visit of Admiral Dewey.

In a personal note, Lieut. Doddridge says he does not anticipate any difficulty in securing leave, the only contingency being the possibility that he would be ordered on sea duty in the meantime. At present the lieutenant is in command of the oil burning torpedo boat Talbot, located on the Norfolk station.

CRITICISM OF DEWEY

Relative to the Transfer of His Home Unfounded.

Yesterday, many Wheeling people criticized the action of Admiral Dewey in transferring the Washington home presented to him by the American people, to his wife. Last night the Intelligencer received the following dispatch from Washington, which effectually disposes of these criticisms:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 21.— George Goodwin Dewey, Admiral Dewey's only son, is now the owner of the residence presented to the admiral by the American people.
Papers were prepared and signed early to-day, by which Mrs. Mildred McLean Dewey transfers all rights and titles to the property known as 1747 Rhode Island avenue, this city, to George Goodwin Dewey. This is the property which yesterday Admiral Dewey transferred to Mrs. Dewey. The papers making the new transfer probably will be placed on file to-morrow morning.

In explanation of the transaction practically completed to-day, a relative of the Dewey family made this statement to the Associated Press:
"Admiral and Mrs. Dewey have transferred to the former's son, George Goodwin Dewey, the title to the home presented to the admiral by the people of this country. It will continue to be the home of the admiral and Mrs.
Dewey so long as he may live. It was desirable now to say that it was the wish of both the admiral and Mrs.
Dewey to provide for a proper succession to the property. The transfer of to-day completes the transaction begun yesterday, and in the carrying out only of the original intention of both the admiral and Mrs. Dewey. By all those interested in the matter, the method of transfer adopted was considered the best and safest that could have been adopted. It is to be considered, naturally, that the transfer was to be the act of Mrs. Dewey, as well as of the admiral. It was her desire that she should release any claim she might have to the property through her marriage to the admiral and to do this the transfer was made through her to the admiral's son as soon as was practicable. Through the method adopted no dispute can ever arise over the disposition of the property."

DEWEY WILL ACCEPT

The Invitation to Visit Wheeling to Be Presented Thursday.

The Intelligencer has pointed out from time to time that Admiral Dewey will doubtless accept the invitation to visit Wheeling to be presented to him to-morrow by the committee of Wheeling citizens. The reasons were generally recognized as amply sufficient to justify the prediction.

Last night it was learned through an Associated Press dispatch from Washington to the Intelligencer, that Admiral Dewey yesterday accepted an invitation to visit Columbus. This, of course, means that he will come to Wheeling—probably the day before or the day after the Columbus date, which is not yet settled. The dispatch mentioned is as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 21.—A delegation of representative citizens of Columbus, Ohio, called upon Admiral Dewey at his home to-day and extended to him an invitation to visit Columbus, as a guest of the city and state, at his convenience. The admiral accepted the invitation, but the date of his visit will be determined at some time in the near future.

THE SWORD FUND.

To the Public:

We endorse the initiative action taken by the Wheeling Intelligencer, both in inviting Admiral Dewey to take part in the ceremonies attending the setting of the Fort Henry commemorative tablet, and in proposing the raising of a fund by popular subscription for the purpose of purchasing a suitable sword, to be presented to Lieut. John Doddridge, U.
S. N., in recognition of his services contributory to the great victory won by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay.

We suggest that the Intelligencer proceed once to receive subscriptions to the Doddridge sword fund, to the amount of $500, same to be expended by the Fort Henry Tablet Committee in purchasing the sword, to be presented to Lieut. Doddridge, in connection with the Fort Henry ceremonies, February 22, 1900.

this evening at 8 o'clock, the contracting parties being Rollo J. Conley, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Georgia E.
Hall, the youngest daughter of Sylva-ciating minister Dr. Gideon Martin, a life-long friend of the family, has officiated at the wedding of all of Mr.

Hall's children. The bridal party will leave for Florida in the morning and probably extend the trip to Havana.

INGENIOUS SCHEME

Worked by a Trio of Sharps Who Were Arrested by the Police.

PLAYED "GREEN GOODS" GAME

By Initiating the Unwary into the "R. P. A.," a Fictitious Secret Organization—One of the Gang Came From Littleton—Owing to Lack of Positive Evidence and Failures of Victims to Prosecute, They Were Released.

Yesterday's Intelligencer told of the arrest of three strangers who were working a "green goods" game under the pretense of securing members for a fictitious organization, entitled the "R.
P. A." As stated, the police were forced to release the men, owing to an insufficiency of evidence and because the victims would not prosecute. The trio went on to Benwood, and it is supposed will attempt to separate sundry citizens out in the state from their hard-earned coin.

It did not develop until yesterday morning what scheme the men were working, and it is still enveloped in considerable mystery. After one of the men was placed in jail he was noticed tearing a piece of paper into fragments and these were secured and pasted together. Thus pasted the sheet contained a printed blank, which read as follows:

"I, _____, of the state of _____, do solemnly swear in the presence of Almighty God, that I will faithfully keep all the secrets and signs of the R. P. A., until death. Furthermore, if I divulge any signs or secrets of the order of the R. P. A., I shall after doing so, be expelled from the order as a spy and subject myself to the penalty by some part of the order.
Furthermore, I, _____, do agree not to barter, sell or give to any party or parties, any money or other gains of the R. P. A." This entitled the above named party to a membership in the first degree which he has taken in the presence of _____, who is a member in the fifth degree. The above named party is _____ years of age; color of _____; color of _____; occupation at this time, _____.

(Signed.) _____ The police learned of two men who were induced to join the "R. P. A.," one of them a Benwood citizen who forked over $10 on promise of "dividends" to be received. The "dividends" held forth in the glittering light of promise, no doubt, were counterfeit greenbacks. One of the schemers said his home was in Littleton, and he refused to give his name, he said, because his wife was a music teacher in Wheeling, and the disgrace might injure her. Captain Clemans stated that the three men looked like farmers and not as slick looking as their adopted calling would presume. They came to Wheeling from Selo. It was later learned the Littleton man gave his name as J. P. Renner.

The scheme betrays considerable ingenuity and it could be worked on many people, for the desire to get rich quickly is a factor in causing some people to snatch at "green goods" bait.
The outlined oath, with its semblance of secrecy, is also somewhat alluring to the unwary. There were many guesses as to what "R. P. A." stood for, and while in reality it stands for nothing, "Robber's Protective Association" wasn't inappropriate.

Jefferson County Circuit Court.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 21.— The regular November term of the circuit court of Jefferson county convened to-day with Judge E. Boyd Faulkner on the bench. J. W. Rider, of Harper's Ferry district, was made foreman of the grand jury. The following indictments which are not true bills, were returned: Lee Walters, selling intoxicating liquors to a habitual drunkard; William Roman, selling spoiled meat; John White, assault; Charles Lloyd, robbery; Maggie Withers and Web.
McKinney, illicit cohabitation. A true bill was found against Charles Martin for passing a forged draft on the Bank of Harper's Ferry, for $525. Martin claimed to be from Michigan, and after he obtained the money left for parts unknown. Grand jury was adjourned until to-morrow. Several important cases are yet to be investigated. Among them is that of the five men charged with robbing the keeper of the Maryland and Virginia Bridge Company, at Shepherdstown, in May last.

State Board of Examiners.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

State Superintendent of Schools Trotter to-day appointed as members of the state board of examiners, the following: C. E. Carrigan, superintendent of Benwood schools; R. A. Armstrong, professor of English, West Virginia University; Josiah Keely, principal of preparatory branch, at Montgomery; U. S. Fleming, superintendent of Parkersburg schools. They take the places of the old board, which was composed of W. H. Anderson, superintendent of the Wheeling schools; A. J. Wilkinson, Grafton; T. E. Hodges, professor of physics, West Virginia University; J.
D. Sweeney, principal of Hinton schools.

Supposed Incendiarism.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

A straw rick on the farm of Captain J.
S. Melvin, near Duffields, was burned last night. The straw was a short distance from the barn, and when first discovered two men were seen running away from the fire. The supposition is the motive was to fire the barn. A fire of the same motive took place about three weeks ago, on the farm of J. C.
Tablert, near the same place, and two men were seen running away from it.

Cabanus Improvement Company.

Special Correspondence of Intelligencer.

The secretary of state to-day issued a certificate of incorporation to the Cabanus Improvement Company, of Wheeling, with an authorized capital of $500,000. The company is organized for the purpose of dealing in real estate and laying and establishing a town on the island of Cuba. The incorporators are: W. A. Wilson, J. A. Miller, W. H.
Anderson, S. C. Patterson, Peter Bachman, D. H. Taylor, J. B. Dillon and

Suit Against Labor Union.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 21.—Louis Erno to-day brought suit for $10,000 against the entire membership of Toledo tinners' union No. 6, of the Amalgamated Association of sheet and metal workers. Such cause for action is that he was employed on May 17, 1899, by a local firm. On that date he applied for admission into the union, but was refused. On November 11 last he was discharged, his employer telling him

THE NEW SKIN SOAP

Made from the Fresh, Green Leaves of the Tasmanian Blue Gum Tree.

Perhaps you have not given it a thought, but there has never been but one way of making soap; the base of all, from the commonest washing to the finest toilet, has always been the same, fats, grease or oil combined with an alkali. To be sure, different grades of these materials are used, delicate perfumes and medicament of some kind often added, but nine-tenths of every cake of soap made is composed of the above ingredients. In fact, it has always been thought that soap could not be made in any other way, and for this reason no physicians have ever recommended the use of any soap for the skin. As a general thing, they are made from cheap fats and grease collected by street scavengers, and thrown out from houses in which all kinds of filth is prevalent; however, of late most of the oils used come from incensary plants now erected near all large cities, where is burned the refuse collected from private houses, hotels and restaurants. Thousands of gallons are produced in this way every year, and being too cheap for other uses is purchased almost exclusively by soap makers. It is claimed that the heat used destroys all the germs of disease; but the medical profession assert the contrary, and state that the use of cheap soap accounts for most of the blotched and pimply faces we see daily. One thing, at least, has been proven conclusively: that the dry and scaly skin with which so many persons are troubled is due to the use of alkali. However true this may be, the thought of using such products daily is not a pleasant one, and the discovery of a method by which soap can be made without these dangerous ingredients will be hailed with delight by all.

HYOMEI ANTISEPTIC SKIN SOAP

Is the most perfect Toilet and Medicinal Soap ever known, and the first one to be manufactured by the new process. Made from fresh, green leaves of the Tasmania Blue Gum Tree, and containing all its fragrant, well-known healing and antiseptic qualities, this soap will be a revelation to users. As a skin food it has no equal. It acts not only as a cleanser and preventive against disease, but cures all cutaneous affections in a short time. It gives a rich creamy lather, an invigorating and refreshing odor, and leaves the skin soft, white and velvety.

HYOMEI ANTISEPTIC SKIN SOAP is sold by all druggists. Price 25c.
If your druggist does not keep it, we will send by mail on receipt of price.
